

Foltz Martin, LLC
presents our Breakfast Roundtable Series:

2011: Is This The Time?

Session 4: Is Now the Time to Hire or Fire? Expanding or Contracting Your Workforce in a Complex Economy
Thursday, November 17, 2011, 7:30AM – 9:15AM

Our 2011 Roundtable theme has been “Is this the time?” Previous installments have covered the topics of getting back into the real estate market, buying or selling a business and business expansion. We continue our focus on this market with our fourth installment on strengthening or streamlining your workforce.

Unemployment remains stubbornly high, but the market may be slowly improving. Is now the right time for your company to create jobs through opportunistic hiring or trim the fat through strategic reductions in force? Which course is right for you? What factors should you consider? Who should you consult to make the right move?

Please join Foltz Martin and industry leaders as we discuss these and other topics as we ask “Is now the time to hire or fire?”
